

Kevin Nathan Moore

24.kmoore@heritageacademies.com

Objective

I am seeking to utilize my academic and cooperative learning skills acquired in the classroom environment to secure a position within an elementary school.

Education

Michigan State University, East Lansing, Michigan

Master of Arts in Education: August 2014

Focus: Reading and Administration

Bachelor of Arts: May 2006

Major: Elementary Education

Teaching Major: Language Arts

Teacher Certification, May 2008

Teaching Experience

North Saginaw Charter Academy, Saginaw, Michigan

June 2014 – Present, K-8 Reading Specialist

- Establish differentiated reading workshops for K-8 teachers
- Evaluate the school wide strengths and weaknesses of our core reading program
- Lead and assist paraprofessionals on creating strong, differentiated lesson plans
- Work in partnership with teachers, administrators, and parents on best practices for reading

August 2008 – May 2014, Teacher

- Taught core subjects in both 5th and 6th grade
- Established strong, positive relationships with staff, parents, and students
- Used data and other information to drive student instruction.
- Created rigorous lesson plans and assessments aligned to the Common Core
- Successfully planned lessons and activities with a multitude of team members
- Demonstrated a wide range of instructional practices to best serve the needs of students
- Hosted and participated in K-8 assemblies for March is Reading Month
- Helped lead and organize class field trips during the school year
- Attended SPLASH training for student health and fitness
- Filled in for absent Administration in the office
- Recipient of bonus from NHA for exceptional scores and parent satisfaction – 2011-2012

Lewton Elementary School, Lansing, Michigan (5th Year Internship)

January 2008 – May 2008, Grade Level: 3rd

- Assisted Collaborating Teacher with lesson planning
- Lead Teacher from February 2008 – March 2008
- Created a unit plan for Social Studies and Science that featured literacy based resources

- Taught reading and writing skills in small group settings
- Effectively incorporated technology to assist in literacy instruction
- Assisted in a school wide field trip for students and parents to a Michigan State University basketball game

Bryant Elementary School, Flint, Michigan

August 2006 – January 2007, Grade Level: 1st

- Observed classroom and management techniques with a mentor teacher
- Taught math, science, and reading comprehension during the second marking period
- Participated in Social Committee with teachers from K-6

Substitute Teacher, Flint Public School District

January 2007 – May 2007, Grade(s): 1 – 10th

- Worked with a wide range of students in core subject areas
- Honed classroom management techniques and practices

Undergraduate Teaching Experience

Montessori Children’s House, Lansing, Michigan

August 2007 – February 2008, Grade(s): K – 6

- Organized after school snack and activities for a variety of age levels
- Ensured student safety at dismissal by having parents and guardians sign in and out
- Responsible for securing up the building at night

Bath Elementary School, Lansing, Michigan

January 2005 – April 2005, Grade Level(s): K, 1st

- Planned and taught hands-on Social Studies lesson on good citizenship
- Helped to assess and monitor students’ progression in literacy

Diamondale Elementary School, Holt, Michigan

January 2004 – April 2004, Grade Level: 2nd

- Taught an interactive science activity on changing weather patterns to a whole group
- Observed classroom activities and management techniques

Professional Development

Technology

iPad, Kindle Tablets, SMARTboard, Elmo data projector, Typing Pal, Microsoft Word, Microsoft PowerPoint, Microsoft Excel, Google+, Google Sites, Google Chrome, Mozilla Firefox, Internet Explorer, Safari, Windows Media Player, Adobe, Weebly, Digital Cameras

Additional Employment Experiences

Doorman, Harrison Roadhouse, East Lansing, Michigan

September 2004 – August 2005

- Utilized conflict resolution skills to deal with patrons
- Maintained order in the setting, and assisted other staff members when necessary

Wilson Hall Cafeteria Worker, East Lansing, Michigan

October 2001 – August 2006; September 2007 – July 2008

- Demonstrated leadership as a cook, making sure food was prepared and on time for approximately 300-500 students on a daily basis
- Worked with a wide range of ages, races, and cultures
- Strengthened teamwork and communication skills